FOREWORD

This manuscript is a private collection of genealogical information and family history which has been prepared to preserve for posterity all that I have been able to learn about the Bruns and Brons families. It is built up-on a 1920 over-all description of the families, their origin and descent, as told the compiler by Niels Anderson Nelson Bruns, eldest son of Jens. The plan for the genealogy suggested itself to the compiler then, when it was learned that the different families of the name Bruns in the Portland, Me. area---the emigrant progenitor of the related Brons families of west coast areas, came to Portland and there used the name Bruns---were all descended from the same common "old country" ancestor. It seemed to the compiler that such a fine, large and interesting family deserved to have its history re-corded in commemoration of its fathers. This paper is a tardy beginning in that direction. The knowledge gleaned in 1920 was supplemented off and on for thirty-odd years and has been greatly augmented and in most part corroborated during the past fifteen months by: contributions from many other members of the family; by records from the parish church register at Bruns, Denmark; and by a limited research into vital and other records. The information may be understood to be as of mid-1954.

I have endeavored to get information from as many sources as possible, but particularly an appropriate history of each family from representative members among the descendants of the original families, in an effort to verify statements and to ensure maximum accuracy. However, being of limited pecuniary means, I have not made an exhaustive search of vital records, nor have I verified those records provided by others. Nevertheless, it is believed the work is free from consequential errors. Principal and doubtful records have been documented where possible, in an attempt to eliminate all guesswork and make the record as complete and reliable as possible within the means available to me.

Omissions and incomplete records are for the most part due to neglect on the part of those failing to respond to letters of inquiry. Letters describing the work and requesting information were sent to all members of the family personally known to me and to many others whose addresses were provided. Some have refused through neglect or a lack of interest to furnish information requested. If errors exist in names and dates, it is because I have reported what has been imparted to me by those who appeared best informed. The compiler will be glad to have any inaccuracies brought to his attention so that they may be corrected by circular letter.

Lacking a personal acquaintance with all but a very few of the individual members of the family, the compiler has been unable to impart few desirable details of interest to the descendants from personal knowledge. None were ever active in politics or great in state or nation. The emigrant members were plain, honest farmers, carpenters, cabinetmakers, or the like; some became successful in businesses of their own and not a few prominent in their community. Others became respected and successful farmers. On the whole, they were noted for their strength of character, integrity and industry, a heritage in which the descendants can feel a just pride.

While parts are fragmentary, the material will serve the purpose of aiding, and it is hoped of encouraging, some member of the family with the means as well as the bent, in preparing a more worthy work. For the present, however, the facts herein presented will keep the fathers in honored remembrance. The work has been interesting though burdensome, requiring many months of patient labor and sacrifices. My only reward is pride in achievement and service to my wife's family. This, my second endeavor in genealogical work, is the best that could be done at this time. While a more extensive and costly search of passenger lists, and vital and other records in various towns, cities and counties of a dozen states, would result in greater documentation, it is confidently believed that such research would not disclose other descendants of the surname Brons or Bruns in the lines covered in the enumeration. Some research is desirable in Denmark, however, to establish the origin and descent of the ancestor if possible; to document the marriages of the sons Jens and Mads and the births of their children born there, as well as to confirm or disprove the statement that the ancestor had a son Soren and if so, to obtain the history of his children and their descendants. My health and means do not permit of me doing further work along those lines.

I have endeavored to present the information collected in an orderly manner, and with due regard for the rights of the individuals as respects the privacy of their personal lives, yet to account for all descendants of the surname Brons and Bruns. The lack of interest by some, however, has added to the burden, making it necessary to obtain required information solely from public records. Anglicized forms of Danish Christian and surnames, "pet" names, nicknames, and variant spellings of these names due to variant pronunciations by different members of the family, as well as errors of recording clerks, and family records presented in a confused order, has increased the difficulties.

To those who have manifested an interest in the work and have freely and cheerfully aided in the collection of materials, the descendants are indebted for this opportunity to meet their grandparents. It is unnecessary here to enumerate the contributors, as they are referred to in the genealogical enumeration, but the compiler is deeply indebted to Miss Agnes Brons and Mrs. Marie C. Brons, of Solvang, Calif., and Mrs. Laura V. Poulsen, of Portland, Me., as well as Mrs. Anna M. McCann, wife of the compiler, for invaluable help.

Arrangement.

The genealogical enumeration is arranged in four sections, a section for each of the brothers Jens, Jcf, Elias and Mads, in the order of their birth, but as Jcf did not himself emigrate to America, his widow, Marie (Miller) Bruns, who did, is listed as the American progenitrix of this line.

Each person of the surname Bruns or Brons is given a consecutive number in the order of his recording, his number being used when reference is made to him. This number will be found in the index.

When a male of the surname Bruns or Brons has descendants, this is indicated by the symbol # before the consecutive number, under which, in the center of a page further on, the full record of the person will be found.

The lists of children state their given names only; the surnames will be found underscored in each case immediately preceding the lists. The names of all children born Bruns or Brons, and where married the names of their spouses, are in capitals.

In the female lines, children are numbered in parenthesis, viz: (1) (2) (3) etc., and the names are underscored; the grandchildren with numerals viz: (I) (II) (III) etc., and in capitals; great-grandchildren, viz: (A) (B) (C) etc.; and great-great-grandchildren, viz: (a) (b) (c), etc.

The male and female lines are traced as far as practicable. All females born Bruns or Brons are noted in their proper place, the full history of their descendants are included in the mother's record.

INTRODUCTORY NOTE

The ancestral home of the Portland, Me. Bruns families and of the related progeny of one family that settled at Portland but subsequently removed to Iowa following the death of the father, there took the name Bruns, and eventually settled in Enumclaw, Wash., is in Brøns Parish, Denmark, located near the west coast of the Northern Zone of Schleswig known as Danish Schleswig, or The South Jutland Provinces. The area, formerly part of the duchy of Schleswig, Denmark, was from 1864 until 1920, a part of the German province of Schleswig-Holstein. In all but two or three instances, the emigrant members of the family were born prior to 1864 while the area was still under Danish control, but in all but three instances, they emigrated to this country after the area passed to the control of Germany. In a number of cases, records state that members were born in Germany; in Schleswig, Germany; or in Schleswig-Holstein, Germany, when in fact they were born in Schleswig, Denmark. None of the persons named in this genealogy came from the Southern Zone of Schleswig now under the control of Germany.

The family name appears in Denmark as Brøns and is derived from the city of that name. Those members of the family who emigrated to Portland, Me., took the anglicized form, Brun. However, the progeny of one such family as mentioned in the preceding paragraph, took the spelling Brons upon removing from Portland. In this paper, to avoid confusion and for the sake of simplicity, the unlaut is dropped from all surnames and place names; the name Brons is used to denote only those (descendents of Elias) who used such spelling, and the name Brun is used to denote the city of Brøns and all other members of the family born Brøns, including not only those who took the anglicized form of the name (descendents of Jens, Jef and Mads), but also those who remained in or returned to, Denmark.

The names Anderson and Nelson appearing as middle names in the names of several emigrant members, are Andersen and Niclsen, respectively, in "old country" records. Such persons generally used the former spellings after coming to Portland, but in some instances both spellings are found in the American records.

The former "old country" custom of the family name being changed about so that at one time children were given a surname formed of the father's or grandfather's Christian name, with the patronymic ending -son, or -sen, to show descent from the father or grandfather, will be found reflected in some family names appearing in the following pages. For example, the children of one Anders Petersen are called "Anderson"; one Niels Jorgensen will be found to be the son of Jorgen Jensen; etc. Danish surnames with both patronymic endings will be found in some instances within the same family where some emigrant members, or in a few instances the second generation, changed the -sen, to -son, as: Ebbesen (first generation) and Ebbeson (second generation); or Anderson (some emigrant members of a family), and Anderson (other emigrant members of the same family), etc. Both spellings are often found in vital records concerning the same person. Some emigrant members adopted the anglicized forms of their names, as: Williamson for Vilhelmson; Kelsen for Kjeldsen; Johnson for Jorgensen, etc. Some changed their given names, as: Jack or John for Jens; Andrew for Anders; etc. Still others were married under given names unknown to their descendants. Spellings of all names are as provided me or as found in official records. Generally, documented records are indicated by suitable abbreviated annotations.

The foregoing facts should be kept in mind by the examiner, especially when searching the pages for a particular event or person.

Errors & Additions.

Before reading the enumeration make suitable notations in the margin thereof referring to the following (E & A):

- No.1 Page 10, Line 18, read: (I)MAY, m. 4 Mar. 1927, Carroll VanValin (change the spelling of the given-name in the index); residing in Wakefield, Nebr., where he is proprietor of "Carroll's Grocery". He formerly was employed in Long's Drug Store there for ten years. We are indebted to her for the history of this family and much of that on the families of James and Frank Brodersen.
Children (VanValin):

THE BRUNS-BRONS ANCESTRY

The direct ancestor of the emigrant progenitors whose posterity are recorded in the following pages, was Niels Andersen Terp, who together with Else, Jens' daughter, cotters, settled in Bruns Parish, Denmark, in 1819. Else died there 13 Jan. 1854, after suffering a long time from rheumatism. She was born in Norre Farup, the daughter of Jens Nielsen. At her death she is mentioned as "Insidder, Niels Andersen Terp's wife in Bruns" (Insidder meaning someone living in a house without any surrounding ground). Nothing has been found concerning the death of Niels Andersen Terp. The evidence of all this, and proof of the ancestor's progeny hereinafter listed, rests upon a letter addressed to Miss Agnes Brons, of Solvang, Calif., granddaughter of the son Elias, written 12 June 1954 in Danish, by Rev. Anders Malling, Pastor at Bruns Parsonage, Denmark, in which is set forth church records concerning this Bruns family. The recipient of the letter, to whom along with Pastor Malling the Bruns and Brons families are indebted for the collection of these "old country" records, translated its contents and transmitted the original and translation thereof to the compiler for use in the preparation of this paper. (See Appendix A) They are the earliest records found of the origin of this family. The death of Niels Andersen Terp is of course recorded in some parish church register in Denmark, possibly in Ballum where the son Soren settled, or in Kjarbolling or Rapsted where other sons settled. The compiler has not attempted to trace the ancestor further.

The gist of three long-time traditions as related by older members of the family now living in this country, was to the effect the ancestor was born on the east coast of Jutland; a veteran of the Napoleonic wars in Russia---he had been with Napoleon I in 1812 and joined the group that fled to the Black Sea---he returned home after seven years absence, found that a younger brother had usurped his rightful inheritance of their father's estate, name and everything. Angered, he renounced the family, left his ancestral home, went to the west coast of the duchy of Schleswig (South Jutland), Denmark, settled in Bruns Parish, and changed his patronymic, taking the name of Bruns after the place in which he had chosen to make his home. It appears that all young men excepting the oldest son of a landed family had to serve for a time in the armed forces. For some reason not stated, the younger brother did not want to serve and the two brothers made a pact; the older one went to war and the other took his place at home. The parents presumed the soldier lost his life in battle. These long-established traditions were imparted by Miss Agnes Brons, previously referred to, who quoted information contained in an article entitled The Life of An Ordinary Man (her father's Memoirs) written in Danish by her father, Niels Nissen Brons, grandson of the ancestor through the son Elias; by Mrs. A. Iver Poulsen (Mrs. Laura V. Ebbesen Poulsen), granddaughter of Jens, eldest son of the ancestor, quoting her mother Volbina's version of "The legend of the Terp-Brunn name"; and by Mrs. Thomas G. N. Bruns (Mrs. Gladys May Hall Bruns), daughter-in-law of Mads, quoting "Information told her father by Mads" the youngest son of the ancestor. Except for the fact that the parish church register at Bruns states the ancestor came there in 1819, which date is seven years after Napoleon I was in Russia, and the fact that such records show the sons were called "Bruns" while the ancestor's name was "Terp", nothing had been found to confirm the tradition. The first of these traditional accounts and the only one having mention of the ancestor's being with Napoleon I, or of his having been born on the east coast, gave as the reason for the soldier's anger, his finding upon his return from war that the younger brother had married his betrothed. The latter two accounts, however, and with the first having mention of the ancestor's return from war, agreed that the tradition of the two brothers involved not a girl but the distribution of property. The latter two accounts, which are in almost complete accord, are considered the more reliable by reason of their general agreement; by the latter account being first stated by Mads the son, who of course must have known something of his father's history; by the second account correctly stating the ancestor's patronymic; and by the fact that Agnes' father, the author of the first account, was but a young boy when he emigrated to America with his father who soon died. Further, the information contained in the article written by the grandson Niels Nissen Bruns, has proven to be in error concerning the names of the ancestor and his wife, although quite accurate as to the names and history of the descendants.

Besides the records noted above and in the following list of children, Pastor Malling: "----found a record of one Christian Andersen Bruns, Gaardmand (owns a large farm), in Astrup, born in Mjolden and died in Astrup, 5 June 1857, 47 years old, son of Anders Bruns". In referring to Christian, Pastor Malling further stated: "I think he must have been a younger brother of Niels Andersen Terp". This information appears to indicate the ancestor may also have been born in Mjolden, near-by to Bruns, rather than on the east coast as stated in the article by Niels Nissen Bruns. It also appears possible the assumed patronymic was Terp and the original name Bruns. However it may be, this information may sometime lead to the ancestor's lineage. Possibly others of the surname Bruns in this country are descended from Christian.

In 1920, Niels Anderson Nelson Bruns, eldest son of Jens and grandson of Niels Andersen Terp, in describing his origin and descent, correctly stated the ancestor's patronymic when he stated: "My grandfather was Niels Anderson Bruns; he had changed his name from Terp". Niels did not state the reason for the change of name. He knew his grandmother only as "Elsa Maria". Niels Nissen Bruns previously referred to and eight years the junior of the former Niels, stated in his article, that the grandfather was: "Thomas Nielsen Bruns, who married Elsa Maria Kalmus of Scottish descent". Church records obtained have disproved the names of the grandparents as thus stated, but confirm the ancestor's patronymic and his given names as stated by the former Niels. Yet another grandson, Thomas G. N. Bruns, son of Mads, recalls his father saying the ancestor's original name was "Tarp". Other traditional accounts concerning the change of name have been told the compiler, but these have been disproved by the church records now at hand. Those stated may sometime lead to additional real facts.

With documentary proof in the form of the church records found by Pastor Malling, it is possible to assert not only the name of the ancestor and that of his wife, but also although the ancestor's patronymic was "Terp", his sons were born "Bruns" and his only daughter was baptized "Terp". Further, that the ancestor's children, some of whom became the beginnings of the family in America, were born at Bruns Parish, Denmark, and confirmed there under the names and on the dates set forth in the list below. The earliest beginnings of the family in America was through the lines of the sons Jens, Jef, Elias and Mads, the latter being the first of the family to emigrate to America. The emigrant females who married in this country used the surname Bruns---in one case Brons---in their marriage returns, as did the males. On the death record for the son Jens, the father's name appears as "Nielsen Bruns" and the mother's as "Else Bruns", while on that for the son Mads, the father's name appears as "Niels Bruns" and the mother's name is not stated. The parents' names do not appear on the death record for the son Elias.

Excepting only as hereinafter noted: the descendants listed in this section were all personally known to Niels Anderson Nelson Bruns, son of the below-named Jens, and were listed by him; all were listed in the article written by Niels Nissen Brons, son of the below-named Elias; and all have been readily and separately listed by others of the third and fourth generations now scattered far and wide in this country, and in some instances personally unknown to one another or out of touch therewith for a great many years. The oldest living descendant is Hans Nissen Brons, son of Elias, born 1871 in Abild, in the Northern Zone of Schleswig, and now living in Solvang, Calif. The only other descendant of the surname Bruns born in Denmark and now living, is Jens Christian Bruns, son of Mathias, grandson of Jef, and now living in North Windham, Me. Pastor Malling found records of seven children at Bruns, but Niels Anderson Nelson Bruns accounted for one other, Soren.

Before long they went into business for themselves in Market Square at Portland, making show cases and piano-dulcimers. He returned to Denmark about 1870 and Mads continued in business by himself. Upon returning to Denmark, he m. Mrs. Brodersen, widow; one of her sons came to America and m. Metta Lena Bruns, eldest daughter of Jens, in Nebr. Settled in Kjarbolling north of Bruns. All this according to Niels Nissen Bruns. Niels Anderson Nelson Bruns stated there was no issue to his knowledge. - viii SOREN NIELSEN,² was not included by Pastor Malling among the children of Niels Andersen Terp, but was included by Niels Anderson Nelson Bruns, who stated Soren m., settled in Ballum, and had children. Niels started his list with Soren, but did not have additional information regarding him. As he himself was born in Ballum and thus was in a position to know Soren and his family, his statement must be given great weight, particularly as his over-all description of the Bruns family has proven so factual. Knowing Niels as I did, I am confident there was a Soren among the children, who probably was born elsewhere than at Bruns. It is possible, even probable, that other persons of the surname Bruns in this country are descended from him. Others of the family had not heard of Soren, however.

*The following four sections deal with the posterity of the brothers Jens, Jef, Elias and Mads, in the order of their birth, but, as Jef did not himself emigrate to America, his widow, Marie (Miller) Bruns, who did, is listed as the American progenitrix of this line.

First Generation.

1. JENS¹ NIELSEN BRUNS, second son of Niels Andersen Terp and his wife Else (Maria) Nielsen, was born 23 Mar. 1821, confirmed in 1836, in Bruns Parish, Denmark. He ("Jens Nielsen Bruns") died 28 Feb. 1892, at Portland, Me., aged 72 years 11 months 5 days, cabinetmaker, born in Denmark, son of "Nielsen and Else Bruns", burial at Forest City Cemetery, South Portland, Me., in Lot F28 (The Carlsen Plot). D.R. His age at death an error in view of the church record at Bruns Parish, Denmark. He is mistakenly stated as "John C. Bruns" in the death record for the son Jens, but is correctly stated as "Jens Bruns" in those for the daughters Volbina and Elsa Marie, and the sons Anders, Niels, and ("Yens N. Bruns") Soren, and in the record of the son Niels' second marriage.

He married in Denmark, KYSTINE MARIA SKOV, daughter of Christian and Volbina, who are said by Niels(3.) to have resided in Bruns at the time of their daughter's marriage. She had a brother Torn who was drowned in Calif., and another, Soren a sailor, who was single when last Niels(3.) heard of him. Her name is stated as "Kjistene M. Skov" in the record of Niels'(3.) second marriage; but as "Christine Neilsen" in the death record for the son Anders; as "Marie C. Skove" in that for the son Niels; as "Gertrude M. Shaw" in that for the son Soren; and as "Christina Anderson" in that for the daughter Volbina. The mother is stated as "unknown" in the death records for the daughter Elsa Marie and son Jens, while the parents are not stated in the death records for the daughters Metta Lena, Tomina, and Sina. The name Shaw undoubtedly was intended to be recorded as "Skov", but the names Gertrude and Anderson appearing in the death records mentioned above, particularly the former, is confusing to say the least. There has been no mention or evidence of Jens having been twice married, and it is insisted by the older living descendants he did not. Mrs. Richard W. (Miller, granddaughter of Jens) Brandt, quoting her father's sister, Lena Schmedegaard, now living in Randolph, Mass., stated her mother's (Elsa Marie Bruns Miller) maiden name was "Nielsen". If this were so, it indicates that Jens' sons were baptized "Bruns" while the daughters were baptized "Nielsen"; but the daughters used the name "Bruns" in their marriage returns, and others of the family do not agree that the girls were called "Nielsen". Mrs. Schmedegaard was from Hostrup, Denmark.

In the "old country", Jens Nielsen Bruns resided in Bruns, Ballum, and Rapsted. He was a cabinetmaker and maker-of-coffins at Rapsted, where, it is said, he was in great demand because of his skill at these crafts. All his sons were made to learn the carpentry and cabinet-making trades, at which he himself excelled. After the death of his wife, probably at Rapsted, Jens emigrated to Portland, Me. It is said he came with his youngest son, Anders, who emigrated to N. Y. City 25 May 1884, thence to Portland. On arrival at Portland, he resided first with his daughter, Mrs. Andreas Christian Miller (Mrs. Elsa Marie Bruns Miller), at Falmouth, Me., where he was provided with a warm workshop and enjoyed fishing with his grandson, Lauritz Miller; the latter recalling the pleasant hours thus spent with his grandfather. It was not long, however, before Jens moved into Portland to reside with another daughter, Mrs. Jasper Carlsen (Mrs. Sina Bruns Carlsen), where he also was provided with a good workshop. Here he was employed at cabinet-making and carpentry. In later years his son Niels(3.) found laths with his father's name on them in a house he was razing at Portland.

Jens Nielsen Bruns was a man of small physical stature, but his was a remarkable family of tall strong men and handsome women, who were further characterized by a love of music, a pride in citizenship, and a deep religious faith.

His grandchildren idolized him. Mrs. A. Iver Poulsen (Mrs. Laura V Ebbesen Poulsen), and Lauritz H. Miller, granddaughter and grandson, respectively, are now the only descendants who have memory of him. He is said to have used large quantities of tobacco.

There were eleven children, ten of whom reached manhood or womanhood and emigrated to America to found families for themselves. His line appears to be assured, although in spite of his large family there are but eighteen male descendants of the surname Bruns to carry on the line. However, through the females the blood flows in many descendants.

Children of Jens Nielsen Bruns and Kystine Maria Skov
Born in Ballum and Røpsted, Denmark:

2. i METTA LENA,² b. 31 May 1849(D.R.), probably in Ballum. She emigrated to America three or four years prior to her marriage, probably to Portland, Nebr., with others of the family, according to her son George, thence to Nebr. She d. 11 Feb. 1914 ("Matta I. Broderson") in the village of Herman, Nebr., aged 64 years 8 months 11 days, the parents not stated.D.R. The death record gives her birthplace as "Germany", but the Danish duchy of Schleswig wherein she was born, was not a part of the German province of Schleswig-Holstein until 1864, fifteen years after she was born. The death record for the son Frank states the mother's maiden name as "Madlyn Bruns", however in the birth record for the son George, it appears as "Metta Lena Bruns, born 1849 in Denmark".

She "Metta Lena", m. in 1874, probably at Blair, Nebr., RASMUS BRODERSEN, b. 4 May 1843, in Denmark (Danish Schleswig); he d. 27 June 1900, near Herman, Nebr.F.R. He was the son of Mrs. Brodersen, widow, who m. Anders Nielsen Bruns, b. 3 Aug. 1833, in Bruns Parish, Denmark, a younger brother of Jens(1.), according to Niels Anderson Nelson Bruns(3.) and Niels Nissen Bruns(136.). The couple are said by the son George to have met in Omaha, Nebr., who believes they m. in Blair, Nebr. The latter place could not locate the record but reported that if given the day and month it would make a better search for it. Omaha, Ft. Calhoun, and Lincoln, Nebr., report they have no record of the marriage.

After the Danish duchy of Schleswig became a part of the German province of Schleswig-Holstein, Rasmus Brodersen was drafted into the German army and served for one year (1864 or after). He came to the area in and about Omaha, Nebr., shortly before 1868 (Nebr. became a State in 1867.), where he was employed in carpentry work---he learned the carpenter's trade in the "old country" even as the Bruns boys had.

Following their marriage, Rasmus and Metta Lena took up 80-acres of land seven miles southwest of Herman Village, Nebr., for $500, on which stood a small log-house finished with cottonwood lumber. Here they founded the home which was theirs for so many years. Before long Rasmus built an addition of one room onto the house, and constructed a straw-barn for the stock. In 1885 looking to the future and the needs of his fast growing family, he built a new homestead which is still standing and in good repair, wherein the children were reared. This house is now occupied by descendants of the son James. All the wood and poles for the construction was hauled from the Iowa side of the Missouri river on the ice, about fifteen miles east of the homesite. He is said by the son George to have arrived home from such a trip just in time to escape the big blizzard of 1888---his wife Lena had performed all the chores---in which a neighbor and his team were frozen to death only about one-quarter-mile from home. George the son, then a newly-born-baby, was carried from the cottonwood-log-house to the new homestead upon its completion in 1885.

Interesting tales could be told by George---the only member of the second generation now living, to whom we are indebted for the history of this family---of the hardships and privations endured by the members of the family leading a pioneer's life in that country, especially of the early years when, as George said, quite a number of Indians were about and others were passing through. Up to the time George was eight or ten years old, he said, the children stayed close to the house. In reply to a final letter requesting information, George wrote: "None of the people out here are interested in any kind of a genealogy, all the early settlers have passed on and most of us in the second generation are going fast. They all saw and had some rough years and we did also from the early years of our lives".

The family homestead was located in what is called "Rattlesnake Valley", which runs into York Creek. Here, barefooted, the boys herded cattle on the hills and in the valleys. One field of 40-acres located east of the homestead, of which 25-acres was plowed, contained many "rattlers" where, George recalls, his brother James killed nine in one day while planting corn. The foot-gear of his boyhood he described as "one-buckler-shoes" costing $1.25, worn by most everyone, with "button-shoes for Sundays".

There were seven children. Rasmus Brodersen, according to his son George, was one of three brothers who settled in Nebr.; another brother, Peter Brodersen, went first to Col. and finally to Ariz., where he died single. Hans Nissen Bruns(139.) recalls he met a Mr. Brodersen at the home of Niels Anderson Bruns(71.) in Portland, Me., whom the latter introduced as his half-brother; Hans later visited Mr. Brodersen at his home in Portland and says he was a younger man than the Brodersen who married Lena Bruns.

Children (BRODERSEN) born near Herman, Nebr.-

- (1) James Christian, b. 1 Nov. 1875, d. 22 Jul. 1944, at Herman, burial at New England Cemetery, near Herman. F.R. He was taken to Phoenix, Ariz., in the winter of 1910 on a stretcher suspected of having consumption. He was accompanied by his brother Frank. At Phoenix, James' recovery was so rapid that the two brothers went to Calif. and on to Payette, Idaho, at which place they bought a farm of 30-acres on which they lived in 1911. However, they sold out and returned to Nebr. in 1912, where James moved onto the farm he had left on going to Ariz. On their way to Payette, they visited Niels Nissen Bruns(136.) and his family at Enumclaw, Wash., it is said by descendants of the latter. With the exception of one year at Payette, he made his home near Herman as a farmer. In 1935 he represented Nebr. with other farmers at a National AAA meeting held in Washington, D.C., and was honored as a Master Farmer. In the Spring of 1941 he retired from active life and moved into Herman. He was Chairman of the Farmer's Union at Herman, and of the Washington County AAA during its first six years of existence in that county. He was a member of Landmark Lodge, A. F. & A. M. at Herman. (See Obituary Notice, 1944, at Herman.)

D., and there bought a farm in Pembina County, in the N. E. corner of the State, but soon gave up the farm and thereafter for about two years was employed by Warner & Andrus Real Estate Company, after which he and a friend went into Canada, where they were employed for a time in logging camps near the N. D. line. Moving on west to see the country, Charles and his friend eventually arrived at Vancouver, where Charles was accidentally killed by a pile driver while employed on the wharves; his body was shipped home.

(4) A Son, b. 6 Nov. 1882, d. 10 Nov. 1882. F.R.

(5) George Peter, b. 9 July 1885. B.R. Living at Omaha, Nebr., with his wife. Until seventeen or eighteen years old, he worked at home, but upon reaching that age he worked out for $20 per month until 1907 when he started farming for himself, but continued to live with his mother and brother James until his own marriage, at which time he moved to another place which he farmed for twelve years. He was Census Enumerator for Washington County, Nebr., in 1920. In the fall of that year he sold out and moved to Fort Morgan, Col., because of his wife's health. There he was employed building tanks in the spring and buying up pickles in the fall, working for The Great Western Sugar Company and the H. J. Heinz Pickle Co. In the fall of 1924 he returned to Fremont, Nebr., where he was employed by the Crystal Refrigeration Company for seven years, then for the State Highway Department for several more years. He was living at Fremont, Nebr. in 1944. During World War II he took employment as a guard at the Mead Ordnance Plant where he continued until on 12 Sept. 1944, he suffered a severe heart attack and was forced to retire; his wife at the time was visiting their son at Ft. Sill, Okla.

George m. 8 Jan. 1908, Anna Petersen, b. 7 Dec. 1887, near Blair, Nebr., the fifth child in a family of seven children even as himself. Her parents came to Nebr. shortly after his; her father, to get a start, is said to have traded his overcoat for a yearling heifer.

Except for her brother Jens, who it is understood is an invalid, she is the oldest living member of the third generation among the descendants of Jens(1.). She held a Bruns family reunion picnic in 1953.

We are indebted to her for the Ebbesen family history, others of the family contributing through her efforts; and for much of the genealogical information on the older descendants of Jens(1.) and Marie (70.), without which the history of many would have been very scanty. A most generous contributor whose cooperation in collecting family records in the Portland area has been so helpful; through her contact was made with others.

She m., 10 June 1902, in Portland, Me., Aage Iver Poulsen, b. 2 Sept. 1875, in India, son of Rev. Iver Kristian Poulsen, one of eight children (five boys and three girls) all b. in India excepting the daughter Kirsten, who was b. in Copenhagen, Denmark, while the parents were home on furlough from India, and the two youngest boys, George and Frank, b. in Portland, Me. He was educated at Copenhagen, until at the age of 12 years, the family having emigrated to Portland, Me., his education was completed there. He went to sea at the age of 15, making three trips to Rio. An office executive, he started working for H. H. Hay Sons, druggists at Portland, at the age of 18, continuing in their employ for twenty-one years, beginning at a salary of $3.00 weekly. He then was employed by the Walter Corey Company, of Portland, for twenty-seven years, at the end of which time (1941) he returned to work for H. H. Hay Sons, where he is presently engaged. He is expected to retire this year. They celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary in 1952.

Mr. Poulsen's father, Rev. I. K. Poulsen, was b. 21 Sept. 1846, at Ringkiobing, North Jutland, Denmark. At the age of 15 he taught school in a near-by village, but became interested in foreign missionary work and in 1865 was admitted to the Mission Institute at Copenhagen, from where he graduated in 1870. He offered his services to the General Council of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in North America, as a missionary to Rajhmundry, India, and was ordained in English, Danish and in Telugu. In Oct. 1872, his fiancee came to India, where they were married 10 Jan. 1873 (Rev. C. F. Crammer, Missionary, officiating). In 1881, Rev. Poulsen and his family, on furlough from Rajhmundry, spent one year and nine months in Copenhagen where, on the return of the family to India, three of the children were left with the mother's sister to receive their education. Rev. Poulsen withdrew from the Mission in 1888 and left India, where he had served with great success in missionary work, and came to the U. S. A., where he served Danish congregations.

5. iv ELSA MARIE, ² b. 27 Jan. 1854, in Rapsted. D.R. She emigrated to Portland, Me., arriving there when about 18 years old. F.R. She ("Elsa Marie Miller") d. 23 July 1924, in Eugene, Ore., aged 70 years 5 months 26 days, resided about two miles west of Eugene, burial at Danebo Cemetery, father stated as "Jens Bruns, born in Denmark", mother as "unknown, born in Denmark". D.R.
 Elsa came to Portland, Me. (1872/73) about two years after her brother Niels (3.) fled Schleswig to escape a draft. She came unaccompanied by friend or relative aboard a sailing vessel with other passengers. The vessel was long overdue and had been given up for lost when it limped into Portland harbor partly dismasted. Tena, Elsa's daughter, recalls an incident her mother told of experiencing during the voyage: "She had long beautiful hair that reached almost to the deck. One morning, having unbraided her hair for combing, an English lady passenger observed it and brought her up on deck for the other passengers to admire. This drew so much attention to Elsa and she so attracted the Captain that he had her brought to his cabin, where he showered her with his attentions. Being badly frightened and unable to speak a word of English, Elsa feigned sea-sickness, whereupon the Captain allowed her to leave. Thereafter she was careful to remain below." Andreas Christian Miller, later Elsa's husband, it appears, was acquainted with the Bruns family at Rapsted, and courted Elsa at her home there; this is the only instance known where an emigrant member of the Bruns family who married in this country, knew their future spouse in the "old country". Tena above-mentioned, remembers her mother saying that on his visits to her home, in a household of "five boys and five girls", Andreas, having a good voice, would sing while the girls were required to sit and spin linen. When old enough, Elsa was employed at the Lutheran Parsonage in Rapsted, where one of her duties was to ring the church bell, but being small---she was called "Lille Elsa"---she had difficulty getting the bell started until a board was attached to the bell-rope for her to jump upon and thus get the bell swinging. Elsa is described by some of the older Bruns family women now living as having been "one of the finest of women". Tena said her mother liked to recall for her children how in the Spring, members of the family would regularly be told by the mother to be on the lookout for a pair of storks to arrive from their winter home on the Nile, to make their nest in a wagon wheel the father had placed on the roof of the house at Rapsted for the purpose.

She ("Elsie M. Bruns") m. 19 Sept. 1873, in Portland, O., ANDREAS ("ANDREW") CHRISTIAN MILLER (Rev. Israel Juce, officiating). M.R. They celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary in 1923, in the Lutheran Church at Eugene, Ore.

Andreas Christian Miller was b. 4 Mar. 1852. M.R. He emigrated to Portland, O., arriving there 23 Sept. 1872 (M.R.); was naturalized there 29 Aug. 1884. M.R. He died 6 June 1932, in Yuba City, Calif., the son of Iaust and Caroline, burial at Danbo Cemetery. F.R. His naturalization record states his birthplace as "Schleswig-Holstein, Germany", but the Northern Zone of Schleswig, wherein he was born, was not a part thereof until 1864; however it was a part of that German province when he emigrated. His sister, Mrs. Lena Schmedegaard, now 81-years old and living in Randolph, Mass., has said her brother was born in Hostrup, not far from Rapsted, but Lauritz his son stated his father was born in Tonder, Denmark; Hostrup is probably correct.

He emigrated to America to escape a German draft, and came with Elsa's elder brother, Niels (3.), and Christian Iausen, a mutual friend. Germany took Schleswig in 1864, and the trio, having been notified of the draft (1870), fled to Copenhagen, Denmark, and from there made their way to England, where they managed to get aboard the S. S. BUDA, on which among a cargo of sheep, the voyage to Quebec, Canada, was made. Once in Canada, they contacted Niels Nielsen Bruns (180.), uncle of Niels, at Portland, O., who aided them in coming there.

At Portland, Andreas and Niels at least, found employment as stevedores, taking such heavy work in order to get a foothold in the country of their choice, even though at times Andreas found the work so back-breaking that he is said to have had to hold onto Niels' coat tails in walking up the hill from the ship after the days' work. Later, Andreas took employment with a railroad construction gang where, in a scuffle with one of the Irish hands, his back was injured when the Irishman pushed him backward onto the rails, an injury he never entirely recovered from; the Irishman resented a Dane being in the gang.

Though a shoemaker by trade---he had made a pair of slippers for Elsa in the "old country" while courting her, as a mark of his efficiency and affection---he settled on a farm at Falmouth, Me., soon after marriage. He is remembered by the wife of the compiler as wearing a long red beard and playing the organ mornings before going out into the fields. He loved his adopted country and was deeply appreciative of his citizenship.

In 1908 Andreas moved his family to Eugene, Ore., where those of the family who meanwhile had married and settled in or about Portland, soon followed. There were six children. His line will become extinct with the death of the son Lauritz, but through the females the blood flows in many descendants.

She has three sisters living, viz: Lizzie Aaskov, of Portland, Me.; Josie Petersen, of Westbrook, Me.; and Lillian Fanning, of South Portland, Me. Her father is remembered by the wife of the compiler as wearing large gold earrings.

In 1911, after some years building houses with John Robinson, husband of Caroline, above, he moved his family to Eugene, Ore., where he became a successful business man, manufacturing Miller dehydrators and appurtenances. On coming to Eugene, he had bought a prune orchard on which property was an old prune dryer. He became so dissatisfied with the old method of drying that he invented a dehydrator of his own, which was the beginning of the L. N. Miller Dehydrater Company. He has added many features to his original invention and is still doing business at the age of 72. He also runs a dehydrater plant in the fall, on nuts. We are indebted to him for much of the history of his parents and his grandfather, Jens Nielsen Bruns(l.).

12. xi JULDINE MADELINE,² thus described by Niels (3.), whose description was limited to the name. Niels Nissen Bruns (136.), listed a young girl whose name he could not recall. No others knew of her. It is to be noted that Tomina (7.) named one of her daughters "Minnie Juldine", and that she herself was married under the name of "Minnie". There has been repeated mention of "five boys and five girls", thus Juldine apparently died young.

Second Generation.

NIELS² ANDERSON NELSON BRUNS (Jens¹), eldest son of Jens Nielsen and Kystine Maria (Skov) Bruns, born at Ballum, Denmark, 17 Jan. 1851, according to himself. His naturalization record states he was born, 17 Jan. 1851, in Schleswig, Germany, but the Northern Zone of Schleswig wherein he was born, a part of the German province of Schleswig-Holstein when he emigrated to this country, was at the time of his birth, a part of the duchy of Schleswig, Denmark. He emigrated to Portland, Me. (via Quebec, Canada), arriving there 29 Sept. 1872 (Sept. 28 with Andreas C. Miller and Christian Iausen, according to himself.). N.R. He was naturalized at Portland, 8 Sept. 1880. N.R. Died at Portland, (Decring), 17 July 1922, aged 71 years 6 months, son of "Jens Bruns" and "Marie C. Skove", burial at Pine Grove Cemetery, Falmouth, Me. D.R. The town of Ballum, Denmark, wherein he was born, located directly on the west coast of the Northern Zone of Schleswig, (now known as Danish Schleswig or

The South Jutland Provinces), mid-way between the 55th parallel and Bruns, is also where he stated his father's brother Soren Nielsen Bruns, settled.

He ("Niels A. L. Bruns") married first, 1 June 1879, at Portland, Me., KAREN SOPHIE ANDERSEN (Rev. H. J. Ellestad, officiating). M.R. Said to be the first couple married in the First Lutheran (Norwegian) Church, at Portland. Her first marriage. Karen came to Portland shortly after 1872. She was born about 13 May 1852, died ("Karen Sophia A. Bruns") 5 Mar. 1895, of consumption, at Cumberland, Me. (record at Falmouth, Me.), aged 43 years 9 months 20 days, daughter of "Anders Pedersen" and "Anna L. Olsdatter", burial at Pine Grove Cemetery, Falmouth, Me. D.R. Niels(3.) had told the compiler he believed that Karen's father's name was "Peter Andersen", but her father is stated as "Anders Peterson" in the death record for her sister Mariane; as "Andres Peterson" in that for her sister Inger; and as "Andrew Petersen" in that for the brother Peter; the latter, the youngest son, spelled his surname "Anderson" upon emigrating to Portland. Here is a good example of the old custom wherein the children were given a surname formed of the father's first name and the patronymic ending -son, or -sen; the father was called "Petersen" but the children were called "Andersen". Several other instances of the practice will be found within these pages. The mother is stated as "Ane Sophie Olson" in the death record for Karen's sister Mariane; as "Annie Sophia" in that for the sister Inger; and is not stated in that for Peter. The name "Olsdatter" appearing in the death record for Karen as that of her mother's maiden name, was intended to be "Olson's daughter"; the informant having little knowledge of English; datter is Danish for daughter. Karen's surname is correctly spelled "Anderson", and it thus appears in her autographs on her photographs taken at Roskilde, Denmark, before she came to Portland. The name, however, is found to be spelled both "Anderson" and "Anderson" by members of the same family, and even by the same person.

Little is known of Karen's parents. They did not emigrate to America. The father, it was said by Niels(3.), was a seafaring man. The only photograph of him was taken in Christianhavn. He was described by Dorothea, daughter of Karen's sister Inger, as having been "a musical person who liked too well the company of others", with the result that he was a poor provider. His wife, Ane Sophie (Olson) Petersen, is said by the same source to have tired of the uncertain living he provided for his family, and to have taken the children and left him. She is said to have reared them in a one-room apartment, plowing for others when necessary to provide the necessities of life. However, the girls are said to have started working at a very early age so that not all the children were a burden to her. While Niels(3.), formerly the husband of Karen, stated in 1920 he believed Karen was born in or near Copenhagen, Denmark, Dorothea previously referred to, stated the children were born not in Copenhagen, nor in Roskilde, but probably in Cro(?). The homesite, apparently, was not too far from Roskilde, for all photographs of members of the family taken in the "old country" were made there, excepting one of Karen's brother Peter (in uniform) posed with his sister Marie, which was taken in Copenhagen, and excepting too the one of the father taken at Christianhavn. One of Karen taken on a visit to the "old country" some years after marriage also was taken at Roskilde. Besides Karen, there were seven children, two boys and five girls, viz:

HANS, the oldest, served in the army as a young man, came to Portland, Me., but soon returned to Denmark, where he settled in Stevns Klint, and became a farmer; was twice married, had one child by the 1st marriage, six children by the 2d marriage; some of his children are said to have come to America and settled in or about Chicago, Ill. ANNA SOPHIE, for whom the wife of the compiler was said by Niels(3.) to have been named, is said to have n. in Copenhagen (probably Niels Nielsen), to a wooden shoe maker, settled in Copenhagen and had four children. MARIALE, b. 6 Mar. 1846, emigrated to Portland, Me., and there, 30 Nov. 1877, n. Anders Hansen (Andrew Hanson), a farmer, settled in Cumberland, i.e. They had two children (surname Hanson): The first d. as an infant. Hans Olaf, the 2d child, followed the sea as a radio operator; last heard from in 1917. She ("Kariane Hanson") d. at Cumberland, 7 Apr. 1916, aged 7 years 1 month 1 day. D.R. MARIE SOPHIE, emigrated to Portland, Me., escorted by Olaf, son of Kariane; n. n.; resided with her sister Kariane at Cumberland until the latter's death, from then on kept house for her brother-in-law at Cumberland until her health failed, when she moved into A Danish Sisterhood Home at Portland, and there d. about 1931. INGER, b. 24 May 1849; d. at Scarborough, Me., 4 Apr. 1915, aged 65 years 11 months. D.R. She emigrated to Portland, Me., 1882, there n. 18 Nov. 1885, in the home of her sister Karen, Niels Johnson (Niels Jorgenson, who changed his name), son of Jorgen Jensen (Another example of the children being given a surname formed of the father's first name and the patronymic ending -sen!). They settled in Scarborough, Me., where he became a respected and successful farmer. He d. at Scarborough, 27 Mar. 1927, having been b. 1 Jan. 1846, (probably in Uuro?), Denmark. They had two children (surname Johnson): Niels Sophus, b. 31 Jan. 1868, in Portland, Me., m. Annie Marie Lund, 22 Apr. 1920, She b. 3 Feb. 1886, in Portland, Me., daughter of Hans Christian and Elsa Christina (Bruns, daughter of Jes) Lund, settled on the farm of her father at Scarborough, Me., have (surname Johnson)-Niels Sophus jr., accountant, b. 13 Feb. 1922, in Portland, Me., m. We are indebted to Mrs. Dorothea Jensen for much of the history of Karen's family. PETER OLAF, b. 1854, m. in Copenhagen, Johanna Marie Petersen, presumably a widow with children, said to include the son Carl, below. He emigrated to Portland, Me. in 1886, with wife and two children. A carpenter, served the cabinet-making trade in Denmark, was in the King's Guard as a young man. He d. at Portland, 21 Aug. 1928, aged 75 years 3 months 1 day. D. R. There were seven children, including Carl, (surname Anderson): Carl Peter, b. 1 May 1880, in Copenhagen, said to have been six years old when the family came to America, m. 1st, Lillian Walsh, m. 2d, Bertha Keatly, d. Feb. 16, 1941, no issue. Anna (Anna, Jennie, Jane), b. 22 July 1891, in Portland, Me., living in Portland, unm. We are indebted to her for the history of the Peter O. Anderson family. Christine Marie, b. 1 Dec. 1893, in Portland, Me., d. 4 Oct. 1931, unm. Rulli and Anders, d. as infants. SOPHIE, d. at an early age in Denmark.

The compiler had a brief acquaintance with Carline, Peter, Marie, and Peter. Anna, wife of the compiler and only daughter of Karen, never knew her mother, who d. when Anna was but three years old.

Nicks married secondly, 27 Jan. 1896 (in the First Lutheran Church) at Portland, Me., CLARA ELIZABETH JENSEN, born 23 June 1860, at Tønsberg, in Norway, Europe, daughter of Peter Arneas and Anna (Lilie) Johanna Bjelland (Anna Ottilia Tønsberg Wulfson, N.P.), her first name (ev. Ingrid C. Storli, Clergyman, officiating). It. She died at the home of her daughter Ida, at Freeport, Me., 8 Apr. 1910, aged 79 years, burial at Pine Grove Cemetery, Falmouth, Me. She emigrated to Portland, Me., 11 Sept. 1894. She is said to have spent several years in Denmark and some time in England, before coming to America.

Clara's father was the jailer at Mandal. The family resided in the jail in quarters provided for the jailer's family, where they were furnished the necessities of life. Both her parents died in their 50th year. Besides Clara there were eight children, viz:

WILHEIMA, m. Capt. Armand O. Sorensen, in Mandal, had two boys; they resided in Pasadena, Calif., in 1930, where the compiler visited them. PETRA, m. Iver O. Hagen, probably in Portland, Me., had four boys and one girl; she resided in San Pedro, Calif., in 1930, where the compiler met her at the home of Mrs. Christian Tallaksen, in near-by Long Beach; she probably returned to Minn. and d. there. MARIEKA, m. Capt. Thomas Tallaksen, probably in Portland, Me., had two girls, resided in Boston, Mass. BERTHA, m. Christian Tallaksen, probably in Mass., had three children, resided in Quincy, Mass., and Long Beach, Calif., at which latter place the compiler visited them in 1930. MARIE, n.m., d. at the age of 21 years in Norway. RAGNA, n.m.; a Deaconess Sister of Mercy in Norway, where she d. OSCAR, m. Julianne Bakke, probably in Portland, Me., where they resided, had three girls and one boy. EDWARD, d. at the age of 2 years in Norway. We are indebted to Mrs. George L. Burbury, Sr., for this information.

According to himself, Germany having taken Schleswig(1864), and having been drafted by the Germans, he, together with Andreas C. Kihler, later the husband of his sister Elsa Marie Bruns(b.), and Christian Iausen, friends, escaped and fled to Copenhagen, Denmark(1870), to avoid the draft; the Germans were said to be planning to march on Paris about 1871. From Copenhagen they made their way to England where they managed to get aboard the S. S. BUDA, on which among a cargo of sheep they made the voyage to Quebec, Canada. Once in Canada, they contacted Lars Nielsen Bruns(1806), uncle of Niels, at Portland, Me., who aided them in coming there. Niels and Andreas at least, found employment as stevedores, the former soon obtaining work at the Portland Company, where it is said, he was noted for his feats of strength. Being an expert carpenter and cabinetmaker, he soon went into business for himself and became a successful builder and contractor at Portland, in which work he was active until shortly before his death. He is said to have been the builder of the First Lutheran Church at Portland.

A man of honor and correct habits; fair in all his business relations; revered by his children and respected by all who knew him; never seen in anger; Niels Anderson Nelson Bruns was an outstanding and worthy representative of the family name. In religion a Lutheran; in politics a Republican. Resided in Ballum and Rapsted, Denmark, and Portland and Deering, Me. His original description of the Bruns family as related to the compiler in 1920, was the direct cause of this genealogy being compiled. Anna his daughter, has said she believes that a Lawyer Anderson of Portland, Me., who handled some of her father's business transactions, was related to her father through his (Lawyer Anderson's) mother, who is believed to have come to Portland and married for the second time. There were four births in each marriage. The Niels A. N. Bruns branch will become extinct with the death of the son Carl; neither of the three sons have issue, but through the daughters the blood now flows in twenty-three descendants, exclusive of Carl.

He married 1880, at Portland, Me., LOUISA HELGENSTYLE, born 12 Oct. 1854, in Denmark, Europe.F.R. Her name variously stated as: "Louisa Holgenstyle"; "Louise Holkinsteeler"; and "Louise H. F. Helgenstyle", in family and other records. The daughter Clara's marriage record gives the mother's birthplace as "Germany", which is an error.

They settled on a farm at Falmouth, Me., where he was a respected and successful farmer. A skilled carpenter and cabinetmaker, he was the builder of the Lutheran Church at Falmouth. Annual Bruns family picnics were held in addition at his farm, where all the Bruns and related families of Griffsons, Ebbesens, Johnsons, Millers, Lunds, Petersens, and on one occasion at least, some of the Brodersens on a visit from Nels., gathered on Labor Days for reunion. He wore a well-trimmed beard. There were five children. The Christian H. Bruns Branch became extinct with the death of the son Jens, who had no issue, but through the daughters there are a number of descendants.

SOREN²HANSON BRUNS (Jens¹), fourth son of Jens Nielsen and Kystine Maria

(Skov) Bruns, born 26 Nov. 1863, in Rapsted, Denmark.F.R. Born 27 Nov. 1863, in Schleswig, Germany.N.R. (Danish Schleswig became a part of Schleswig-Holstein, Germany, in 1864; he was born while Schleswig was a duchy of Denmark.) He emigrated to Portland, Me., arriving there 26 Sept. 1883.N.R. Naturalized at Portland, 1 Mar. 1898.N.R. Died at Portland, 27 Sept. 1910, aged 47 years 1 month, burial at Forest City Cemetery, South Portland, Me.D.R. In his death record the parents names appear as "Yens N. Bruns" and "Gertrude M. Shaw", the latter name an error, "Shaw" evidently intended to be "Skov", but the name Gertrude is unknown in the family.

He married 1890, in Portland, Me., SOPHIE OLESON.F.R. She was born at Maristad, Sweden, 22 Sept. 1865; died 30 Oct. 1907, aged 42 years, at Portland, burial at Forest City Cemetery, South Portland. Some records concerning her children state she was "born in Germany", which is incorrect. Several records concerning the children state his name as "Loren H. Bruns" and "L. H. Bruns"; here the correct first initial is "S" (Soren).

A cabinetmaker by trade but a musician by avocation. An accomplished clarinetist, he taught violin and clarinet; was a member of several orchestras and the American Cadet Band, at Portland. The family resided at Portland (Woodfords), Me. There were seven children. The continuance of his branch is dependent upon his three youngest sons and their offspring; it is hardly assured.

ANDERS²NELSON BRUNS (Jens¹), fifth and youngest son of Jens Nielsen and Kystine Maria (Skov) Bruns, born 30 Dec. 1865, in Rapsted; one of the very few instances wherein the Northern Zone of Schleswig in which Rapsted is located, was at the time of the birth, a part of the German province of Schleswig-Holstein; it was taken by Germany in 1864. He emigrated to N. Y. City, arriving there 25 May 1884(N.R.), thence to Portland, Me., said to be accompanied by his father, Jens Nielsen Bruns(1.). He ("Anders Nielsen Bruns") was naturalized at Portland, Me., 2 Mar. 1892.N.R. The naturalization record states his birth date as 30 Dec. 1865. He ("Anders Nielsen Bruns") died 31 Dec. 1929, at Bath, Me., aged 64 years, burial at Forest City Cemetery, South Portland.D.R. The death record for the son Jens states the father's birthplace as "Sweden", which is an error. His death record states his parents names as "Jens Bruns" and "Christine Nielsen".

Anders married 1889, in Portland, Me., HANNAH MARIA GREGOR (Johanna Grygaard), daughter of John (came to Portland) and Marie (Larson) of Denmark.F.R. She was born 8 Feb. 1870, at Holstebro, North Jutland, Denmark. She died 26 Sept. 1924, at Portland, Me., aged 53 years 7 months 18 days, burial at Forest City Cemetery, South Portland.D.R. She is mistakenly stated as "born in New Brunswick" in the marriage record for the son Henry.

An expert carpenter and cabinetmaker, he was employed in cabinet-making at Portland for many years. The compiler remembers him as sociable and of a sunny disposition; he loved music. There were nine children. The continuance of his branch is dependent upon his sons Henry J. Bruns and Anders Norman Bruns, and their offspring; it is far from assured.

DESCENDENTS OF MARIE (MILLER) BRUNS, WIDOW OF JEF SORENSEN BRUNS
Who emigrated to Portland, Me., 1890

(Jef did not come to America, but his widow and children did. Two sons and one daughter preceded her, 1872-1888; two other daughters preceded, or came with her.)

First Generation.

70. MARIE¹(MILLER) BRUNS, American progenitrix of this line of the Bruns family, was the daughter of Mathias H. and Elsie Moller, both born in Denmark; she ("Marie M. Bruns, Jef S. Bruns, husband") died 20 Dec. 1899, in Portland, Me., aged 74 years 2 months, burial at Stroudwater, Me., in the plot of the son Mathias D.R. She was from Hojrup Parish, Denmark.Mall.

Marie Moller, aged 29, and JEF SORENSEN BRUNS, born 25 May 1824, the third son of Niels Andersen Terp and his wife Else (Maria) Nielsen, were married 11 Jan. 1855, at Bruns Parish, Denmark.Mall. He died in Bruns, 23 Sept. 1889. Mall. Niels Anderson Nelson Bruns(3.), and Niels Nissen Bruns(136.), both stated, the one to the compiler the other in his article previously referred to, that Jef died in 1872. Niels(136.) also wrote: "Both Jef and his brother Elias fought side by side in the war of 1848 between Denmark and Prussia, in which Jef was wounded and thereafter was in delicate health". The latter Niels further wrote: "In company with (his) parents (he) visited Bruns just before Xmas in 1871 to take leave of members of the Bruns family there, before sailing for America, when Jef was found to be ailing, and soon after coming to America heard that Jef had died". If this information be true, then the date of Jef's death stated by Pastor Halling is in error. In this connection, Hans Nissen Bruns(139.) repeatedly has stated through his niece, Miss Agnes Bruns(142.), that while visiting at the home of Niels Anderson Bruns(71.) in Portland, Me., years ago, the latter introduced him to a Mr. Brodersen whom he said was his half brother, and that later he (Hans) visited

Mr. Brodersen at his home in Portland and found him to be a much younger man than the Brodersen who married Nettie Lena Bruns(2.) in Ucbr. Hans said Niels (71.) told him Mr. Brodersen and he had the same mother but different fathers. No others have mentioned the possibility that Jef's children had a half brother. The mother's death certificate states her name as above-given. Hans first had said Niels(71.) told him he and Mr. Brodersen had "the same father but different mothers", but later changed it to "the same mother but different fathers".

Marie, Jef's widow and mother of the below-listed children, emigrated to Portland, Me., in 1890, possibly accompanied by her two youngest daughters. Their two sons and eldest daughter are known to have preceded her to this country. She is stated as "Maria Meller", "Marie Miller", and "Marie M.", in vital records concerning her children and self. Jef is variously stated as "Jef Sorensen Bruns", "Gief Surrensen Bruns", and as "Tef-", "Jeff-", and "Jef Bruns", in vital records concerning his widow and children. He did not come to America, therefore this American line starts with Marie, his widow, who did. In the birth record for the son Niels at Bruns Parish, the father is mentioned as "cotter". Jef and Marie had five children; all came to America. The line appears assured.

In spite of the church records at Bruns Parsonage, Denmark, which state that the son Mathias was born in Bruns Parish, his naturalization record states he was born in Skanderborg, (North Jutland) Denmark; the latter record may be in error, though it is possible the birth actually occurred at Skanderborg and also was recorded at Bruns Parish, but Skanderborg, near the east coast of North Jutland, is far removed from Bruns. The marriage record for the daughter Else states she was born in Bruns, thus confirming the church record in her case at least. It is difficult to believe the church register is in error, either in the case of Mathias' place of birth, or Jef's date of death, but evidently some one is in error regarding these events.

middle name, Amelia, was not stated in the marriage record, but appears in other records. They had four sons and an adopted daughter.

For many years Niels A. Bruns was a coal and wood dealer at Portland, Me., where he was in partnership with a Mr. Johnson, operating under the name of "Bruns & Johnson". Eventually, he bought out Johnson and carried on the business alone until his retirement, when the son took over the business. He resided in Portland and Deering. He is said to have very closely resembled his uncle, Mads N. Bruns(180.), in physical features. His branch appears assured. The compiler had brief acquaintance with him.

MATHIAS²MARIUS BRUNS (Marie¹), second and youngest son of Marie (Miller) and Jef Sorensen Bruns, born 9 Aug. 1858, in Bruns Parish, Denmark.Mall. (Born 10 Aug. 1858, in Skanderborg, Denmark.N.R.) He emigrated to Portland, Me., arriving there 11 June 1888.N.R. He was naturalized at Portland, 26 Oct. 1896. N.R. Died at Portland, 3 June 1940, aged 81 years 9 months 23 days, burial at Stroudwater, Me.D.R. He outlived his wife. It is believed by some that Mathias visited Portland earlier, went back to Denmark, married, and then emigrated to Portland with his family. The oldest child, at least, was born in Denmark.

He married, in Denmark, MARIE BØE, daughter of Christian of Denmark. She is stated as "Marie Boes, W(ife)." in his death record; as "Maria Boe" in family records. She ("Marie Bruns, Matthias Bruns, husband") died 4 Aug. 1936, in Portland, Me., aged 84 years 5 months 8 days, burial at Stroudwater, the father stated as "Christian Boe, born in Denmark".D.R. They had three sons.

Mathias, obviously named for his maternal grandfather, Mathias M. Miller, was a shoemaker. He settled in Stroudwater where he resided for 60 years, moving into Portland upon his retirement to live with his son Jens. His branch is far from assured.

MARINUS³ JEFFERSON BRUNS (Mathias,² Marie¹), second son of Mathias Marius and Marie (Boe) Bruns, born about 22 Aug. 1888. F.R. While his brother Thomas wrote that Marinus was born "in Denmark - was 1½ years old when they (the family) came to (the) U. S., Birth Aug. 22, 1888", it is believed in error as regards the place of birth, for the family emigrated to Portland, arriving there (at least Mathias did), 11 June 1888. Further, his marriage record, and that for his daughter, state his birthplace as "Portland, Me.". The birth record is unattainable at Portland, like many early ones. A former trolley car operator, employed by the Portland Coach Company. Known as "Reanus" or "Reamus", and as "Jeff".

He married first (1912 at Portsmouth, N.H., according to his brother Thomas.) JULIA ISABEL SHANE, born in Naples, Me.; divorced in 1929 (according to Thomas). She was living at Portland in 1946.

He married secondly, aged 47(?), 15 Sept. 1939, (1931 according to his brother Thomas), in Portland, Me., EVA M. (SULLIVAN) LAWSON, born (about 1903) in Lancaster, N.H., daughter of James S. Sullivan, born in St. John, New Brunswick, and Irma (Hodge) Sullivan, born in Concord, N.H., her second marriage (A. E. Smith, J.P., officiating).M.R. No issue by the second marriage. THOMAS³PETER BRUNS (Mathias,² Marie¹), third and youngest son of Mathias Marius and Marie (Doe) Bruns, born 1 Oct. 1892, in Portland, Me. B.R. Formerly employed by the Portland Coach Company, after some years as conductor on the electric trolleys. Now living at North Windham, Me., where, it is said, he is proprietor of an amusement place. We are indebted to him for the history of Mathias' family.

He married, 17 June 1913, at Saco, Me. (Intentions, 16 June 1913, at Saco), ADMAH MYRTLE GOODWIN, born (about 1893) in Saco, daughter of Fred L. and Viola Y. (Emmons) Goodwin, her father born in Saco, her mother in Biddeford, Me. F.R. The Intentions are recorded under the name of "Burns", changed from "Bruns", according to the City Clerk of Saco, who reported there was no marriage return on file at Saco, though Thomas himself stated they were married there on the date stated. In the Intentions, his mother's name is stated as "Ella Adjutant, residing at Portland, Me., born in Denmark". The mother's name therein given presumably an error in view of various records and his own statements.

DESCENDENTS OF ELIAS NIELSEN BRONS
Who settled at Portland, Me., 1872

(His progeny removed to Iowa in 1876 and from there to the State of Wash. in 1898.)

First Generation.

135. ELIAS¹ NIELSEN BRONS, fourth son of Niels Andersen Terp and his wife Else (Maria) Nielsen, was born 29 Mar. 1827, confirmed 23 Apr. 1843, in Bruns Parish, Denmark. He ("Elias N. Bruns") died of typhoid, 22 June 1872, in Portland, Me., aged 45 years, burial at Evergreen Cemetery, Portland. D.R. Elias was said by his son Niels, to have fought side by side with his brother Jef(70.) in the war of 1848 between Denmark and Prussia. It is his posterity only who use the surname Brons, though he used the name Bruns at Portland. There is no doubt that had the sons grown to manhood at Portland, they would have used the latter name.

He ("Elias Nielsen Bruns"), on 13 Nov. 1858, in Mogeltonder Parish, Denmark, married HANNA MARIE HANSEN, who was born there 18 Mar. 1833, baptized 23 Mar. 1833, and confirmed there 4 Mar. 1849.A.B. They settled in Bruns but moved to Gallehus, a village north of and neighboring on Mogeltonder, in 1860 or 1861 to live with her father. She died in 1877, at Clinton, Iowa. They had four children, only two of whom lived to come to America with their parents. His line appears assured.

In Jan. 1872, Elias left Schleswig, Denmark, with his family and emigrated to Portland, Me., disembarking there with his wife and two sons, 21 Feb. 1872, where they were met at the pier by Mads Nielsen Bruns (180.), who had arranged their passage. At Portland, Elias found employment as coachman and gardener for Mr. Palmer.

Following the death of Elias, Hanna his widow, left with two small boys, 12-year-old Niels and 1-year-old Hans, opened a rooming- and boarding-house at Portland, while Niels left school and went to work in a shoe factory to help with the family income. Shortly before Xmas in 1874 at Portland, the mother married secondly, Mikkel Jensen. A girl was born to them which died during her first summer. In Nov. 1876, the family moved to Clinton, Iowa, where during the following summer, 1877, Hanna died.

Mikkel Jensen married again and in 1879 moved to Ringsted, Iowa, taking Hans with him. Niels, however, stayed on in Clinton for several years until, following his own marriage, he settled on a farm at Elkhorn, Iowa, whereupon he went to Ringsted for Hans and took him back to live with him.

Children of Elias Nielsen Brons and Hanna Marie Hansen
Born in Bruns, Gallehus and Abild, Denmark:

- #136. i NIELS NISSEN,² b. 5 Nov. 1859, in Bruns. Hall and A.C.
- 137. ii KAROLINE,² b. in Gallehus; d. aged 4 years. F.R.
- 138. iii A SON,² b. in Gallehus; d. there an infant. F.R.
- 139. iv HANS NISSEN,² b. 25 Jan. 1871, in Abild, Danish Schleswig, then a part of the German province of Schleswig-Holstein; one of the very few instances in which an emigrant member of the Bruns-Brons families was born after the duchy of Schleswig, Denmark, became a part of Schleswig-Holstein. Hans is now the oldest living member of all the Bruns-Brons families and one of two members now living in this country who were born in the "old country".

Hans came to this country with his parents, disembarking at Portland, Me., 21 Feb. 1872; was naturalized 30 Oct. 1893, at Audubon, Iowa. He resided in Portland and Falmouth, Me.; Clinton, Ringsted and Elkhorn, Iowa; Enumclaw, Wash.; and Solvang, Calif. A carpenter since 1927, he was injured in 1944, since when he has been retired. Following the death of his mother at Clinton, Iowa, in 1877, Hans continued to live with his stepfather, and went with him to Ringsted, Iowa, in 1879, going to Elkhorn, Iowa, to live with his brother Niels in 1884.

In 1891, Hans Nissen Brons went to Chicago, Ill., where on 5 June 1895, he m. 1st, ELLA MARIE LAUSEN, b. 20 May 1869, in Kolding, Denmark, came to America when 16-years old, d. 12 June 1913, in Enumclaw, Wash. No issue. Hans had moved from Chicago, Ill., to Enumclaw, Wash., in 1907, to be near his brother Niels, who meanwhile had moved his family there.

About 1914, he returned to Portland, Me., and here 20 Sept. 1916, he m. 2d, JOANNE DOROTHE ANDERSEN, of Falmouth, Me., b. 13 July 1871, near Copenhagen, Denmark, came to America when 3-years old, d. 3 July 1938, at Portland. No issue. After his second marriage, Hans resided at Falmouth, Me.

In 1939, Hans went to Solvang, Calif., to live with his brother Niels, and here 13 Dec. 1942, he m. 3d, MARIE CHRISTINE (BRUNS) KING, cousin, b. 19 May (Mar. in record) 1891, in Portland, Me., daughter of Anders Nelson Bruns (ll.), her 2d marriage. No issue.

At Solvang, Hans bought a house and there resides with his wife Marie.

NIELS NISSEN BRONS

1859 - 1945.

Second Generation.

NIELS² NISSEN BRONS (Elias¹), eldest son of Elias Nielsen and Hanna Marie (Hansen) Brons, born 5 Nov. 1859, in Bruns, Denmark. M.A. and A.C. He died 22 July 1945, in Solvang, Calif. He came to Portland, Me. from Danish Schleswig with his parents and brother Hans, 21 Feb. 1872; was naturalized 23 Mar. 1882, in Clinton, Iowa.

Niels Nissen Brons married, 5 Nov. 1883, in Elkhorn, Iowa, IDA CONSTANCE BOYSEN, born 13 Sept. 1865, in Chicago, Ill., daughter of Paul Nielsen and Adriane (Petersen) Boysen, of Chicago. She bore him thirteen children, all living today; died 19 Jan. 1919, in Enumclaw, Wash. His branch appears to be assured.

Ida's father, Paul Nielsen Boysen, was born 27 Sept. 1832, in Mogeltonder, Denmark, died 14 Jan. 1916; in Enumclaw, Wash. He and Adriane Petersen, were married in 1861. She was born in the summer of 1834, on "Chotnabakken Farm", near Farsund, Norway, died 10 Dec. 1872, in Chicago, Ill. He followed the sea for thirty years,---landed in Calif. 1851,---first in the Pacific then on the Great Lakes. He made his home in Chicago. Upon his retirement from the sea, he moved to Clinton, Iowa, where he took up painting. He resided with his daughter Ida and her husband for many years until his death. Besides Ida, her parents had four children, all born in Chicago (surname Boysen), viz:

PALMA AUGUSTA, b. 10 June 1871, m. 23 Dec. 1895, Frederick Ludvig Boserup, one time bodyguard to and knighted before his death by, King Christian X, d. in Chicago, Ill.; she d. 25 Dec. 1951, also in Chicago; had (surname Boserup): Twin girls that d. at birth; no other issue. We are indebted to Mrs. Lily Laurena Kirk, for this information, contributed through Miss Agnes Brons(142.).

Paul Nielsen Boysen, Ida's father, had three brothers and several sisters (surname Boysen), viz:

JANE, the youngest sister, m. -----Pedersen, lived in Denmark, where Agnes, Ida's daughter, accompanied by her father, visited them in 1924. Jane and her husband celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary that year. There is no information on the other sisters. A brother, FREDERICK, m. 1st Frederikke (), and had (surname Boysen): A Boy that d.y. Elena, m. Soren Corydon, and had (surname Corydon)- Ella, m. Einer Crown, who have (surname Crown), two girls and one boy; Henry, m. (?) and has two girls; Arthur, m. Ruth (), a farmer's daughter, have no issue; Lillian, m. and has one girl. Beate Birgitte Boysen, they had no children of their own but adopted sisters Katrine and Anna Andersen (the latter died), from an orphanage in Elkhorn, which they started. The third brother, VILHELM, remained in Denmark, where he m. (?); his son Vilhelm who later went to Canada, was visited in Denmark in 1923/24, by Ida's widowed husband Niels and his daughter Agnes.

Adriane Petersen, Ida's mother, is known to have had two brothers and one sister (surname Petersen), viz:

THOMAS, m. Henriette Antonette Olava Salomine Maalsov. Ida resided with them after her mother died. ZAKARIES, m. Lina (), and had (surname Petersen): five girls, of whom Clara and Bell, were two. ELISABETH, who lost her 1st husband by whom there was a girl named Ella, m. 2d, -----Robbinson, and had (surname Robbinson)- Peter, Rena, and Tom.

But 12-years-old at the death of his father in Portland, Me., in 1872, Niels Nissen Brons left school and found employment in a shoe factory until, the mother having married a second time, the family was moved to Clinton, Iowa in 1876. Here he continued to live with his mother and stepfather until, his mother having died in 1877, and the stepfather having married again and moved to Ringsted, Iowa, in 1879, Niels stayed on in Clinton until 1883 when he bought a farm at Elkhorn, Iowa, and married and settled there. In 1884 he went to Ringsted for Hans and took him to Elkhorn to live with him. In Sept. 1898, with nine children, he moved his family to Enumclaw, Wash., 40-miles from Seattle, where he settled on a farm. Here four more children were born to them. Here also James and Frank Brodersen, sons of Metta Lena (Bruns) Brodersen(2.), cousins of Niels, visited them about 1911.

At Ida's death in 1919, Niels, then Treasurer of the Farmer's Mutual Insurance Company at Enumclaw, a position of responsibility and trust which his qualities as a man, citizen and farmer, earned for him in 1900, stayed on there until 1935, when he moved to Solvang, Calif., to live in the home of his daughter Agnes, who in 1943, moved out from Santa Barbara, Calif., to keep house for him. Here he died, almost 86 years old.

Niels resided in: Bruns, Gallehus and Abild, Denmark; Portland, Me.; Clinton and Elkhorn, Iowa; Enumclaw, Wash.; and finally, Solvang, Calif.

MADS NIELSEN BRUNS

DESCENDENTS OF MADS NIELSEN BRUNS
 (Who settled at Portland, Me. 1861)

First Generation.

180. MADS¹ NIELSEN BRUNS, youngest son of Niels Andersen Terp and his wife Else (Maria) Niclsen, was born 1¹/₂ Feb. 1837, confirmed 18 Apr. 1852, in Bruns Parish, Denmark. (Born 15 Feb. 1837, in Denmark.) He emigrated to N. Y. City, disembarking there about 7 Sept. 1861, thence to Portland, Me. He was naturalized at Portland, 6 Mar. 1873. Died at Portland, 30 Dec. 1915, aged 78 years 10 months 15 days, burial at Evergreen Cemetery (Lot D147), Portland. D.R.

Mads married first in Denmark, MARION THOMPSON, born about 1834, daughter of Mark and Anna C. (Peterson) Thompson, of Denmark. She is stated as "Marie L., age 34, born in Denmark", in the 1870 U. S. Census enumeration of Portland, Me.; as "Maria-----" in the birth records for the daughter Eliza R. and son Andrew N.; as "Marion Bruns" in her own death record; as "Marion T. Bruns" in her grave record; and as "Marion Thompson" in the death records for the daughter Anna C. Bruns and the sons Abraham L. Bruns and Anders N. Bruns, and the marriage record for the son A. Lincoln Bruns. She was known to Niels Anderson Nelson Bruns(3.) as "Marien", but as "Marion" to Hans Nissen Brons (139.). She died 26 July 1910, at Portland, Me., aged 75 years, burial at Evergreen Cemetery, Portland, in the lot (P24¹/₂) of Anna C. Bruns (her daughter). D.R. Her grave (1834-1910), is in the same lot as that of Nelson A. Bruns (1864-1910), Thomas G. Bruns (1866-1882), and Lillian T. Bruns (1872-1936), her sons and daughter. They had seven children. Presumably, she divorced Mads.

He married secondly, at Portland, Me., 3 Dec. 1887, CHARLOTTE ELIZABETH GILDART, of Elgin (Moncton, N. B.), in marriage records for the sons Peter and Paul), New Brunswick (Rev. Samuel F. Pearson, officiating.). M.R. She died at Portland, Me., 10 Oct. 1918.F.R. They also had seven children. Mads' son Thomas G. N. Bruns(188.), said his father remarked "he had been blessed with the same number of children in each marriage".

His first wife Marion (Marie L.), and his daughters Marie (Elsie M. H., age 13, born in Denmark.1870 C.E.) and Anna C. (Ann A., age 9, born in Denmark.1870 C.E.), came to Portland in 1861 with Mads. He and his first wife are said to have made one or more trips to the "old country" after emigrating to Fortland, when on one such trip, probably about 1868, Volbina K. Bruns (4.), daughter of Mads' brother Jens Nielsen Bruns(l.), is said to have come back with them.

Mads' name is stated as "M. Nielsen Bruns" in the birth record for the son Andrew; as "Mads Nielsen Bruns" in his birth and confirmation record at Bruns Parish, Denmark, and in the Portland, Me. Directory for 1875; as "Mades Bruns" in the birth record for the daughter Eliza (Lillian); as "Mads Nelson Bruns" in his own death record; and as "Mads H. Bruns" in other records examined, except in the death record for the first son named Thomas(181.), in which the father's name appears as "Niels H. Bruns", obviously an error as regards the first name and middle initial. His death record gives his father's name as "Niels Bruns".

The pioneer in the movement of the family to America and one of the most colorful characters of all its members, he was one of the first Danes to emigrate to Maine, and the first of the name to settle at Portland. He told his son Thomas G. N. Bruns that he helped Wm. Widgery Thomas, one time Minister to Sweden, to settle New Sweden, Me.---it was settled 23 July 1870. He aided other members of the family to come to Portland and found them jobs. His family and he went through the great Portland fire of July 4-5, 1866. He is described as having been a brilliant man. Being appreciative of his citizenship, he named one of his sons for the emancipator, Abraham Lincoln.

Mads was to Australia during the gold rush there with his brother Anders, and possibly was to California also. Niels Nissen Brons(136.), in his article previously referred to in these pages, stated: "Anders left Schleswig in 1849 together with Mads, then 18 years old, and sailed to California to dig for gold. After a few years they sailed to Australia; stayed there several years but finally went back to the U. S. A. and settled in Portland, Me., as cabinetmakers in company with a Norwegian named Johnson, but decided later to work on their own and started a business in Market Square, where they made show cases and piano-dulcimers. Mads continued in business many years after Anders returned to Denmark in 1870". Thomas G. H. Bruns(188.), eldest son of Mads by the second wife Charlotte, recalls that his father told him he had been to the East Indies and to Australia, and had been in business with a partner at the time of the great Portland fire of 1866; that they were insured in one of the few insurance companies that paid claims, but that his partner collected and vanished, leaving him destitute. Mads appears in the 1869 Portland Directory as a cabinetmaker at 23 Preble Street, with residence at 16 Hammond Street, while in the 1875 Directory he appears as a maker of show cases at 19½ Market Square, with residence at 55 Preble Street. In 1870 the family resided in Ward I, Portland. In 1900 when he was a lumber dealer, and at the time of his death, the residence was at 31 Kellogg Street. Niels Nissen Brons(136.) mentioned in his article that Mads was 18 years old when the couple left Schleswig to dig for gold. But as Mads was not 18 until 1855, and considering that his first child was born in 1857 in Denmark (13 years old in 1870 C.E.), it is very probable that they left Schleswig not in 1849 or 1855, but in 1852 or 1853, probably during the latter year, when Mads was 15 or 16 years old, and then probably only to Australia and not to California ---the rush to Australian gold fields was at its height in 1853. It was not uncommon for boys to go to sea at the age of 15 years, even as the compiler did, and earlier for that matter, but it is unlikely that Mads left home until after he was confirmed in 1852. Skilled as a cabinetmaker and pattern-maker, Mads was employed for some time at the Portland Company, and at the Portland Stove Foundry, as pattern-maker. He was active to within a few months of his death.

In later years "Mas" or "Old Mas" as he was called, suffered the loss of a leg. From information imparted by his son Thomas G. N. Bruns(188.), it appears that the loss resulted from a bone injury received at the age of 12 years, when, in riding a horse home from the fields one evening he saw a detachment of German soldiers at a bend in the road ahead and jumped from his horse to flee, injuring the leg, but managed to evade the soldiers. The Germans it seems, had imposed a law upon Schleswig prohibiting the display of the Danish flag. Such a flag was sewn into Mads' hat and he was fearful of its discovery by the soldiers. Though he did evade the soldiers he carried an internal sore in the leg bone through the years until 1904, when the leg was amputated. (History confirms that in 1848/49 Germany did have forces in Schleswig, attempting to separate it from Denmark; Brons family records too show that Mads' brothers Jef and Elias fought side by side against the Germans at this time). It is said Mads made his own wooden legs; the first weighing 22-lbs., the second only $2\frac{1}{2}$ -lbs. He always kept several spares drying behind the kitchen stove. On occasion when he would go down town on the trolleys and somewhere along the way his wooden leg would break down, one of the boys would have to be off with a spare over his shoulder upon receiving word of the accident.

The children of the first and second marriages were referred to as "The first family" and "The second family", respectively. Those of the one scarcely knew those of the other. But all descendants in both families, have been respected citizens and worthy representatives of the Bruns family name. Many good things might have been recorded here about each individual member of interest to their descendants, had I been reminded of them in time by those best informed. The first person of the surname Bruns to be born in Me., or elsewhere in this country as far as the compiler is aware, was Mads' son Nelson A. Bruns (Neal L., age 7, born in Maine 1870 C.E.), who was born in Me., in 1864, presumably at Portland (record of birth unattainable at Portland or at Augusta); died 1910 at Portland. The first of the name recorded at Portland is Mads' son Andrew (Anders) N. Bruns.

Of the children of the first marriage and their progeny, little is known. The daughter Anna and the son Anders, as well as Alice, wife of Anders, and the latter's daughter Marion, were personally known to the wife of the compiler, and she had heard of the daughter Lillian, as well as another daughter having married a Mads Hansen. Niels Anderson Nelson Bruns(1.) listed the children of Mads' first family as: Anders; Marie; Annie; Niel or Nelson; Abe Lincoln; Lillian; and Tomina or Thomas. He noted that Lillian was in show business. Hans Nissen Brons(139.) confirmed the name of Mads' first wife as Marion; imparted the information that Anders' daughter Marion married L. B. Stevens; and provided the grave records for Nelson A., Thomas G., and Marion T. Bruns. Thomas G. N. Bruns(188.) knew of Lillian, provided her grave record, confirmed those provided by Hans, and compiled and supplied all information on the second family, except as noted. Mrs. A. Iver Poulsen (Mrs. Laura V. Ebbesen Poulsen) imparted the information that a sister of Mr. Arthur Warburg, husband of Elsie Louise (Bruns) Warburg(25.), married a son of a daughter of Mads by the latter's first wife and were living at Trenton, N. J. With the many male descendants of the surname Bruns, Mads' line should be assured.

Persons not Placed

236. HELEN MARIE BRUNS, m. age 18, in Portland, Me., Donald Weston Kingston Currier, age 19, born in Portland, son of Harold W. Currier and Grace (Kingston) Currier; she is stated as born in Rockland, Me., father, J. Christian Bruns, mother, Alberta F. Sawyer (Charles L. Cronkhite, Clergyman, officiating). M.R. (Birth record unattainable at Rockland---Town Clerk of Casco, Me., advised looking for the record at South Portland, which would require some research. This marriage ended in divorce. There was one child, Janelle, now about 11-years old. He in USAAC 1946 living at Portland.
 It is understood she m. 2d, -----Woodworth, by whom there is said to be two children. She is living at North Windham, Me., caring for Jens Christian Bruns, an invalid. She informed the compiler she had not been adopted.
237. ELIZABETH MARY BRUNS, born 9 Mar. 1919, at Portland.
238. HAROLD O. BRUNS, in 1954 Portland Directory.
239. JAMES BRUNS (Louisa) in 1954 Portland Directory.
240. PETER BRUNIS (Lillian) in 1946 Portland Directory.
241. CHESTER BRUNS, met by Robert Bailey Bruns(205.), fellow Marine, who later told his father that the former, from Arkansas, said he was descended from one of three brothers who came to America together from Denmark.

The Assistant Librarian of the New England Historic Genealogical Society, Boston, Mass., informed the compiler there are several references to Bruns and none to Bruns, in the consolidated index to the first fifty volumes of the REGISTER, and in the American Genealogical Index there is reference to two, one to Lillian in the Foote Genealogy and the other to Martha in Woodstock, Conn., volume 6.

Other persons of the name Bruns have been encountered than those listed, but a common surname of course, even in the case of a distinctly uncommon name like Bruns, is not enough in itself to establish relationship. Such persons have not been queried concerning their ancestry. But while it is not certainly known whether any are not of the same common stock as the Bruns families whose history is here recorded, with the possible exception that some are descended of Soren Nielson Bruns, brother of Jens, Jef, Elias and Mads, progenitors of the lines considered in this genealogy, it is believed highly improbable any are related, unless remotely so through Christian Andersen Bruns, brother of the "old country" ancestor referred to in the preceding pages. However, it is possible, indeed very probable, that descendants of Soren did emigrate to America, but in 1920 Niels Anderson Nielson Bruns(3.) did not know of any. It is known many of these other persons named Bruns are of the Catholic faith, while members of this Bruns family are traditionally, Evangelical Lutheran.

I. Niels Andersen Terp og Else Jens Datter, husfolk, kom til Brøns sogn 1819. Else Jenndatter døde i Brøns 15-1-1854 efter langvarige lidelser af gigt. Hun var født i Nørre Farup, datter af Jens Nielsen dør. Ved døden betegnes hun som "indsidder (folk som bor i et hus, hvortil der ikke hører jord) Niels Andersen Terps kone i Brøns". Om Niels Anderson Terps død har jeg ikke fundet noget.

De havde følgende børn:

- II,1 Anders Nielsen Brøns, født i Brøns 16-3-1819, død 19-8-1830.
 2. Jens Nielsen Brøns, født i Brøns 25-3-1821, konfirmeret 1836.
 Forældrene betegnes her som "husfolk af bondestand".
 3. Jes Sørensen Brøns, født 25-5-1824, død i Brøns 25-9-1889.
 Gift 11.jan.1855 med Marie Møller fra Højrup sogn, 29 år gl.

De fik følgende børn:

- III,1. Niels Andersen Brøns, født 11-12-1855. Faderen betegnes her som hustru.
2. Mathias Marius Brøns, født 9-8-1856.
 3. Else Christine Brøns, født 11-5-1861.
 4. Elsie Marie Brøns, født 22-2-1864.
 5. Cecilia Brøns, født 22-5-1867.

4. Elias Brøns, født 29-3-1827, konfirmeret 29-4-1845.

Om hans bryllup har jeg intet fundet, men han er nok blevet viet i et andet sogn.

- III,1. Niels Nielsen Brøns, født 5-11-1859, søn af indsidder Elias Brøns og hustru Hanne Marie Hansen.

Andre børn af dem har jeg ikke fundet.

Sønne

5. Cilla Maria Terp, født 25-1-1830, død 19-2-1835. Hun er altsaa født med navnet Terp, skønt hunden sikkende alle er født Brøns.
 6. Anders Nielsen Brøns, født 3-8-1833, konf. 25-3-1849. Han har altsaa fået det samme navn som den første son, der var død tre år før.
 7. Mads Nielsen Brøns, født 14-2-1837, konf. 18-4-1852.

Stamfaderen Niels Andersen Terp har altsaa haft i det mindste syv børn, hvoraf Dere's bedstefader var nr. 4.

Men foruden disse personer, som har fundet passos sammen paa evennavnte mands, har jeg fundet "Christen Andersen Brøns, gaardmand i Astrup, død 5-6-1857, 47 år gammel, født i Modolden (nu kaldes det Mjolden), Søn af Anders Brøns dør! Jeg har tænkt paa, at han kunde være en yngre broder af Niels Andersen Terp. Hans fader må nemlig også have heddet Anders, da han selv hedder Andersen. Og navnet Brøns må jo også have hørt slægten til, siden han har kaldt sine børn Brøns, skønt han selv hed Terp; da han kalder sit ældste barn Anders Nielsen Brøns, og efter denes død kalder sit sjette barn Igesna, har hans fader sandsynligvis heddet Anders Nielsen Brøns, eller blot Anders Brøns.

Brøns præstegaard, 12.juni 1924.

INDEX

DESCENDENTS OF JENS, MARIE (JEF), ELIAS AND MADS BRUNS
DEARING THE NAME OF BRONS AND BRUNS

The figures before each name denote the year of birth; the figures after the name denote the consecutive number where found. The name in parenthesis after the names of males is that of the wife, after the names of females the surname of the husband. An (*) denotes persons mentioned in the pages headed "The Brons-Bruns Ancestry". Having found the consecutive number look for the name opposite this number in the enumeration; where the symbol # appears before the number, the full history of that person and family is to be found under this number appearing in the center of a page further on.

INDEX OF
ALLIED FAMILIES & ALL OTHER NAMES

The figures before each name denote the year of birth; the figures after the name denote the page where found. The surname is given, followed by the first name and middle initial. Surnames with the patronymic ending -sen and -son may be found within the same family; that stated is not necessarily the spelling in such cases, therefore the examiner is reminded to look under both spellings. A few of the dates are based upon ages appearing in marriage records.
